Losing Flesh

You naturally lose flesh in the summer and running down is so easy. You get a little weaker each day without hardly noticing it. There is loss of appetite, headache, weakness of the muscles, disturbed sleep, weakness of memory, and these are the beginning of nervous prostration. Iron and tonics and bitters may afford some temporary relief, but what you need is a food for body, brain and nerves.

Scott's Emulsion

man has been nominated, one who will probably pull more votes than I would have received had I been the nominee. At any rate, let us all go to work cheerfully and heartily in support of the ticket. With kind regards, I am, Yours truly, H. P. BRAND.

LEXINGTON, Mo., July 14, 1905.

My dear Sir: I received your letter of the 11th inst., received. I wish to assure you that I remember you all kindly yourself and others of my old neighborhood and associates of my boyhood days. I would be glad indeed to have a photograph of the old Creek schoolhouse, where we went to school together in our earlier manhood.

I have no regret to express for my defeat at Chicago. On the contrary, I feel that a great load and burden has been removed from my shoulders. I was willing to hear all for the good of our people, but it has been deemed essential to our success, but we must be very strong and have been nominated, one that we can count on to support us in the future. I have known Mr. Bryan for several years and served with him in Congress, and I can testify to his great energy and his sincerity in the cause of the people. I hope Kentucky will give him a tremendous majority. With kind regards, I am, Yours truly, H. P. BRAND.
